Destroy My Covetous People Of Sin, My Son

“Why do My people refuse to obey Me, My son? I called them to go into all the world, My son. Instead, they love their covetousness and will not give it up. The love of the world and the things of the world captivates their hearts and won’t give them up like I command. Oh, how few do My will, the rest are in the world with the things in the world, their hearts tightly wrapped with covetousness and will not give it up. Did I not say go into all the world to preach My Gospel, yet they refuse. They shall be destroyed, worthless servants of Mine, refusing to do My will, My son. They shall enter eternal Hell for refusing to obey Me, but loving the world instead, My son. They shall never be gathered into My Kingdom, having hearts full of covetousness. The idols of their hearts are many, and they refuse to give them up. Destroy My Church, My son. I have spoken, the Great I Am. Amen.”
